Mentoring Program

Attorneys are grieved more often when handling domestic relations matters than when handling any other type of matter.

Join the FLS Mentoring Program and reduce your chances of getting grieved.

Why sign up?

More and more attorneys who practice in the area of domestic relations are getting grieved by their clients. The FLS mentoring program is designed to be a resource for attorneys to help them practice both competently and ethically. Third person referrals to the program are welcome.

Those who join the FLS mentoring program will be paired with a qualified Mentor for one year.

The Mentor will be available to answer questions

Above all, a lawyer owes to all with whom the lawyer comes in contact, civility, professional integrity and personal dignity.
-CBA Principles of Professionalism about specific domestic relations issues and law practice management. Mentors are encouraged to develop lasting professional relationships with their Mentees. The mentoring program committee will oversee the mentoring relationship.

How to sign up?

Fill out the application on the back of this brochure and return them to FLS Mentoring Program, 1900 Grant Street, Suite 900, Denver, CO 80203. You may also fill them out on-line at the Family Law Section web site, www.cobar.org.

To qualify as a Mentee you must be a solo practitioner or in a firm of 3 or fewer attorneys who practice in the domestic relations area.

To qualify as a Mentor, you must be an attorney who has practiced for 10 or more years in the domestic relations area. You must be willing to commit to a one year term as a Mentor.
