

The Colorado Supreme Court Would Like to Recognize Your Commitment to Pro Bono Service

The Colorado Supreme Court takes great pride in recognizing those firms, government, and in-house counsel groups that have committed to the Colorado Rule of Professional Conduct 6.1(a) goal of annually performing 50 hours of pro bono legal services per Colorado licensed attorney, primarily for people of limited means and/or organizations that serve people of limited means.

In addition to listing their names here and on the Court's website, all firms and groups on the Colorado Supreme Court's pro bono commitment list will be recognized during a special ceremony, and those firms and groups that achieved the goal during the previous calendar year will be presented certificates of achievement signed by each member of the Court.

This year's ceremony starts at 5:00 p.m. on April 19, 2018, in the atrium of the Ralph L. Carr Judicial Center. It will be combined with an evening reception, complete with a bar donated by the CBA. If your firm or group has not already joined the Colorado Supreme Court's pro bono commitment list, please join today. You need only notify Justice William W. Hood III of your commitment, c/o Law Clerk Katie Steefel at katherine.steefel@judicial.state.co.us or (720) 625-5402.
