

Table of Contents

Summary Table of Contents	iii
Table of Questions	xv
Dedication	xxxix
About the Author	xli
Foreword	xliii
Introduction and Acknowledgments	xlvi
Part 1: Aliens and Government
Chapter 1: Strangers in an Even Stranger Land — Aliens and Immigration Law After September 11, 2001
Introduction	4
I. Aliens in a Time of “Patriots”: Immigration Policy After 9/11	4
II. The Patriot Act and Other Statutes	7
A. Legislation	7
B. “Terrorism” — Do We “Know It When We See It?”	10
C. “Foreign Terrorist Organizations”	11
D. The Patriot Act and Foreign Governments	13
III. Immigration Consequences and Terrorism	14
A. New Grounds of Inadmissibility and Deportation ¹	14
B. Secret Deportations and Evidence	16
C. Excluding the Family of “Terrorists”	18
D. Aliens and Fund-raising	18
E. Aliens and Money Laundering	19
IV. Detention of Aliens on Terrorist Allegations	21
V. How 9/11 Affected Various Types of Immigration	24
A. Men from Muslim Countries: “Let’s Try Racial Profiling Again”	25
B. Alien Students	27
C. Refugees	28
VI. Alien Terrorism Victims	29
VII. Alien Informants	30
VIII. Military Commissions	31
IX. Punishing Terrorists	36
Chapter 2: Immigration Law for Criminal Lawyers
Introduction	38
I. Whatever Happened to the INS?: Reorganization After 9/11	40
II. Government Authority over Aliens	43
A. Federal Power and Jurisdiction	43
B. Regulation of Aliens in the United States	45
C. “Entry” and “Admission”	47
D. Visas	50
1. Nonimmigrant Visas	52
2. Immigrant Visas	53
III. Citizenship and Naturalization	55
IV. Immigration Court and Proceedings	58

A. Immigration Detention	58
B. Removal (Deportation) Hearings	61
1. Immigration Court	63
2. Removal Hearing Procedures	64
a. Noticing The Respondent	64
b. Hearings Before the Immigration Judge	65
c. Determining Relief	72
3. BIA Appeals	72
4. Judicial Review of ICE and EOIR	73
5. Removals Without Hearings	74
V. Deportation Relief	75
A. Voluntary Departure	76
B. Adjusting Status	77
C. Cancellation of Removal	77
D. Asylum	78
E. Suspension of Deportation	79
F. Waiver	79
G. Private Immigration Bills	80

Chapter 3: Border Stops

Introduction	81
I. Border Searches and the Fourth Amendment	82
II. Miranda and Border Stops	86
III. Detention and Arrest at the Border	87
IV. Searches of Bags, Persons, and Body Cavities	88
V. “Border Searches” Not at the Border: Functional Equivalent and Extended Border Searches	89
VI. Border Checkpoints	91
VII. Roving Border Patrols	92
VIII. Mail Searches	94
IX. Searching for Aliens	95
X. “Blind Mule” (Border Drug) Cases	96

Part II: Aliens and Criminal Convictions

Chapter 4: Immigration Consequences of Criminal Convictions

Introduction	103
I. Telling Aliens of Immigration Consequences	103
A. Duty of Trial Court	104
B. Duty of Counsel	105
II. Aliens and Crime	109
A. Deportation and Exclusion	109
B. Citizenship	113
C. Cultural Concerns	114
D. Cooperating Aliens	115
E. Immigration Detention for Convictions	115
III. Immigration Law and Convictions	116
A. “Conviction” and “Sentencing” Under Immigration Law	116
B. Immigration Courts, Prior Convictions, and Categorical Approach	118
C. Immigration Law and Criminal Dispositions	119
1. Probation	119

2. Deferred Adjudications and Diversion Agreements	119
3. Expunged Convictions	120
4. Suspended Sentences	122
5. Modified Sentences	122
6. Vacated Sentences and Cases On or After Appeal	122
7. Pre-Plea or Pretrial Diversions	123
8. Juvenile Adjudications	123
9. Undesignated Offenses	124
10. Pardoned Offenses	125
11. Cases On or After Appeal	125
D. Old Convictions and Ex Post Facto Issues	125
IV. Criminal Acts and Immigration Law	126
A. Criminal Acts Not Resulting in Conviction	127
B. Aggravated Felonies	128
C. Drug Convictions	128
D. Moral Turpitude Misdemeanors and Felonies	130
1. Moral Turpitude Misdemeanors	130
2. Moral Turpitude Felonies	132
3. Specific Moral Turpitude Offenses	133
E. Specific Deportable Offenses	136
1. Weapons Offenses	137
2. Domestic Violence and Child Abuse	137
3. Alien Smuggling	139
4. Document Fraud and False Social Security Cards	139
5. Alien Voting	141
6. DUI Convictions	142
V. Aliens in Prison	143
VI. Consequences of Returning After Deportation	143

Chapter 5: Aggravated Felonies

Introduction	146
I. Aggravated Felonies in General	146
II. Convictions Defined and Categorical Approach	148
A. “Convictions,” Expungements, Suspended Sentences, Youth Offenders	148
B. Categorical Approach	150
III. Ex Post Facto and Retroactive Effect of Statute	151
IV. Immigration Consequences and Deportation Relief	152
V. Types of Aggravated Felonies	155
A. Generally	155
B. Drug Offenses	159
C. Murder, Rape, And Sexual Abuse	163
D. Crimes of Violence	164
E. Theft and Burglary	168
1. Generally	168
2. Theft	169
3. Burglary	170
F. Fraud Offenses	170
G. Firearms Offenses	172
H. Alien Smuggling	174

I. DUI Convictions	175
Part III: Immigration Crimes
Chapter 6: Alien Employment Crimes
Introduction.	180
I. Immigration Employment Law History	180
II. Intent of the Statute	182
III. The Crime of Employing Aliens	184
A. Hiring and Authorization	184
B. “Employees” and “Hiring” Defined	185
IV. Investigations of Employers	186
A. Investigations	186
B. An Employer’s Verification Requirements	187
C. False Verification Documents	189
V. Harboring Aliens	190
VI. Defenses	191
A. Constitutional Defenses	191
B. Good Faith Defense	193
C. Compliance Defenses	193
VII. Discrimination Issues	194
Chapter 7: Marriage Fraud
Introduction	197
I. The Statutes	198
II. The Petition Process	200
III. “Marriages” and “Sham Marriages” Under Immigration Law	202
IV. Investigating Marriages	205
V. Constitutional Issues	207
VI. Trial Issues	209
A. Criminal Intent	209
B. Motions	209
C. Evidentiary matters	210
D. Jury Instructions	211
E. Prosecutorial Misconduct	212
VII. Sentencing	212
Chapter 8: Alien Smuggling and Hostage Taking
Introduction	216
I. “Pollos” and “Coyotes”	216
II. Elements of the Offense	218
III. The Statute in General	220
IV. RICO and Wiretaps	222
V. Hostage Taking and Alien Smuggling	223
VI. Smuggling of Aggravated Felons: 8 U.S.C. § 1327	224
VII. Material Witnesses	225
A. Deposing Material Witnesses	225
B. Video Depositions	227
C. Exculpatory Witnesses	229
D. Representing Material Witnesses	231
VIII. Motions to Suppress Statements	234

IX. Motions Regarding Roving Border Stops	235
X. In Limine, Trial Issues, and Defenses	236
XI. Plea Bargaining	240
XII. Sentencing Issues	242
A. Statutory Penalties	242
B. The Federal Sentencing Guidelines	243
1. Base Offense Level and General Considerations	243
2. Number of Aliens Adjustment	244
3. Other Adjustments	244
4. Reckless Endangerment or Death	246
5. Departures	247

Chapter 9: Immigration Document Fraud and False Statements

Introduction	250
I. Basis of Congressional Power	250
II. General Issues	251
A. Materiality	251
B. Third-Party Liability	251
C. RICO and Wiretaps	252
III. General False Statement Statutes in the Immigration Context	252
A. Perjury	252
B. Conspiracy	253
C. General False Statements, 18 U.S.C. § 1001	254
IV. Specific Immigration False Statement Crimes	255
A. False Statements upon Entry, Fraud with Visas, Permits, and Other Documents: 18 U.S.C. § 1546	255
1. Section 1546 In General	256
2. Section 1546 and Entry	257
B. False Passports	258
C. Impersonating Another for an Immigration Benefit	260
D. False Statements as to Convictions and Crimes	261
E. False Statements as to Prior Deportations	261
F. False Claims as to Citizenship: 18 U.S.C. § 911	261
G. Fraud and Identity Documents: 18 U.S.C. § 1028	263
H. False Statements in Voting	264
I. False Claims for Welfare Benefits	264
V. Prosecutions and Trial Issues	264
A. Indictment	264
B. Admissibility of Evidence	265
C. Defenses	265
VI. Sentencing and Forfeiture	266

Part IV: Reentry After Deportation and Illegal Entry

Chapter 10: Illegal Entry and Reentry — Pretrial and Trial

Introduction	272
I. Elements and Statutory Application	273
II. Detention Issues	277
III. Trial Preparation and the Preliminary Hearing	279
IV. Pretrial Motions	280
A. Motions to Suppress	280

1. Statements	280
2. Defendant’s Body/Identity	282
B. Motions to Dismiss	284
1. Statute of Limitations and Speedy Trial	284
2. Collateral Attacks on Deportation	285
a. Legal Basis	285
b. Procedural Defect	288
c. Prejudice	294
d. Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies	296
e. Attacking In Absentia, Reinstated, Administrative, and Expedited Deportations	297
i. In Absentia Deportations	297
ii. Reinstated Deportations	298
iii. Expedited Deportations	299
3. Constitutional Issues, Disparity, Treaty Violations	300
V. Trial Issues	302
A. Criminal Intent	302
B. Evidentiary Issues	303
C. Alienage Element	303
D. The “Found In” Element	305
E. Attorney General’s Consent to Reenter	308
VI. Trial Defenses	310
A. No “Entry” Free from “Official Restraint”	310
B. Good Faith Defenses	312
C. Challenging the Deportation Documents	313
D. Duress, Necessity, Corpus Delicti, Insanity	315

Chapter 11: Illegal Entry and Reentry — Pleas and Sentencing

Introduction	319
I. Plea Bargaining and Proceedings	320
II. Sentencing	322
A. The Guidelines Today	324
1. Offense Level Calculations	326
a. General Application Issues	326
b. Offense Levels for Priors	328
2. Criminal History	334
3. Multiple Punishment Issues	335
4. Supervised Release Issues	336
B. Departures from the Sentencing Guidelines	337
1. In General	337
2. Specific Types of Departures	338
a. Cultural Assimilation	338
b. Criminal History and Mitigating Nature of Prior	339
c. Consent to Deportation	340
d. Treatment of Aliens in the Federal Bureau of Prisons	341
e. Disparity in Plea Practices	342
f. Good Motives or Necessity	342
g. Credit for Time Served Immigration Detention	342
h. Pre-Indictment Delay	343

Part V: Alien Witnesses and Defendants

Chapter 12: Getting Witnesses and Evidence from Abroad

Introduction	347
I. Subpoenas to U.S. Citizens and LPRs Abroad	348
II. “Paroling” Foreign Witnesses for Testimony and Cooperating Witness Visas	349
A. Paroling Witnesses	350
B. Visas for Cooperating Witnesses	354
III. Compelling Foreign Witnesses or Taking Foreign Depositions and Foreign Documents	355
IV. Letters Rogatory	359

Chapter 13: International Extradition

Introduction	362
I. International Extradition in General	362
II. Constitutional Issues	364
III. Alternatives to Extradition: Abduction and Immigration Law	366
IV. Treaties	369
V. Types of Extradition Requests	370
A. Provisional Arrest and Detention	370
B. Formal Extradition Requests	373
1. Getting the Fugitive Here	373
a. General Procedures	373
b. Rule of Specialty	375
2. Sending the Fugitive There	377
a. General Procedures	377
b. The Hearing	378
c. Legal Standards	379
d. Defenses to Extradition	380
i. Political Offenses	381
ii. Dual Criminality	381
iii. Plea Agreements	381
VI. Hearings: Appeals and Habeas	382

Chapter 14: Treaty Transfers — Aliens There and Citizens Here

Introduction	386
I. Treaty Transfers in General	386
II. Transferring Aliens Back to Their Country	389
A. Timing and General Considerations	389
B. Eligibility	393
C. Procedure	395
D. The Hearing and Prisoner’s Consent	395
E. Repatriation	397
III. Transferring American Citizens Back to the United States	397
A. Starting the Process	397
B. Basis of Decision	398
C. Bringing the Prisoner Home	400
D. Challenging the Foreign Conviction	401
E. The Role of the Parole Commission	402
F. How the Parole Commission Decides the Release Date	404

1. Applying the Federal Sentencing Guidelines	404
2. Downward Departures	405
a. Cooperation	406
b. Acceptance Of Responsibility	406
c. Minor Role	407
d. Abuse or Torture in Foreign Custody	408
G. Appealing the Parole Commission	409
Table of Cases	411
Index	437