

NOMINATIONS NOW BEING ACCEPTED FOR
THE TRUST AND ESTATE SECTION'S
R. STERLING AMBLER AWARD

This Award is for “Outstanding Contribution” to the Trust and Estate practice in the State of Colorado. The Award is named in honor of R. Sterling Ambler, an exceptional attorney who practiced law in Colorado for over 50 years and who gave freely of his time and expertise to individual lawyers, to the Colorado Bar Association and to the legal profession until his death in 2004 at the age of 72.

Sterling was skilled in the law but in addition he excelled at writing, debating and refining statutory language and ideas. He worked on many legislative proposals and willingly considered new ideas and developments in the law. His diplomacy and insights were often useful in bridging differences among lawyers, sections of the Bar, and the legislature. He was selfless in advancing the law as a whole over his own personal interests. Sterling Ambler will be remembered for his sense of humor, his quiet unassuming way, and his willingness to accept help from others and to freely share his wealth of knowledge of the law.

Credentials:

The Award is given to an individual who has contributed substantially to furtherance of Colorado law, education of others and the Trust and Estate Section of the Colorado Bar Association.

Criteria for Outstanding Contribution:

1. Significant years of contribution to the Trust and Estate Section and the legal profession, and
2. Multiple areas of contribution. These may include (but are not limited to) one or more of the following:
  - a. Building connections between sections of the CBA;
