

AVAILABILITY OF LEGAL SERVICES NEWS

April 16, 2003

April Meeting Notes

- Legal Services Programs Report: Jon Asher
Rob Dieter of CU Law School confirmed by Senate as appointee to Legal Services Corporation
CO Family Violence money (1/2 million) lost in budget cuts, CBA lobbyists are on it.
US Supreme Court decision: IOLTA safe for the moment, facing more challenges later
- Access to Justice Commission/Judicial District Committees Report on website
- Pro Bono Conference: May 1 & 2 in Steamboat Springs
- March 4 Tuesdays at the Bar Program Report
Thanks to Phil Cherner for a great program on behalf of the Availability Committee. There were about 35 attendees and we had a Mardi Gras King Cake with lunch.
- Website Update: Availability News and Access to Justice to be on website later today
- Other Business:
Schedule of Local Pro Bono Awards Celebrations see Website
The Colorado Lawyer: A Pro Bono Month article will run in the May 2003 issue. Column articles are expected for the May and July issues. Column Editor: Kathy Gebhardt
Special Projects: Hoagland, Schaetzel & Pro Bono Coordinator of the Year Awards
These Annual Awards will be presented during the 2003/04 Presidential Visits
Nominations and Award History are on the Committee page on the COBAR website.
Nominations are due May 30, 2003.

Next Committee Meeting: May 21, 2003 at Noon in the CBA offices.

For Information on the CBA Availability of Legal Services Committee or this Web Newsletter contact
Jo Ann Viola Salazar at jvsalazar@cobar.org or 303-824-5310