

Campaigning for Change

Next generation diversity efforts center on changing cultures within legal organizations to include and value people of difference. The Colorado Campaign for Inclusive Excellence is committed to assisting legal organizations with their efforts to embrace this new paradigm of inclusiveness. CCIE is campaigning for change through educational opportunities, including its annual Summer Diversity CLE Series.

To learn more about CCIE and its many initiatives, including its cutting edge inclusiveness program, go to www.colegaldiversity.org or contact CCIE Executive Director Kathleen Nalty at knalty@colegaldiversity.org.

Speakers

Dr. Arin Reeves - an expert in diversity and inclusiveness in the legal profession, Dr. Reeves was the featured speaker at the 2009 Rocky Mountain Legal Diversity Summit. Her generational diversity workshop is highly entertaining and informative — a MUST SEE for attorneys and law students of all generations.

Bill Proudman - his CLE workshop last summer was standing room only. Bill's presentation leaves everyone, but especially white men who aren't sure how they fit into diversity efforts, empowered and engaged. This is a MUST SEE workshop.

Katherine Pease - the local diversity and inclusiveness expert who wrote the original 6-step inclusiveness manual and facilitates CCIE's inclusiveness pilot program, Katherine Pease's workshop is geared to those who want to learn how to create a culture of inclusion.

Patty Powell - an attorney and diversity consultant with Hummons Consulting LLP, Patty Powell is a CCIE Board member.

Ken Stern - an immigration attorney with Stern Elkind Curray & Alterman LLP, Ken Stern divides his time between his consulting work with the Linx Group LLC and practicing law.

Jesse King — a diversity consultant working in the arenas of leadership, organizational development, and philanthropy, Jesse King assists organizations with inclusiveness efforts and organizational cultural projects.

Jeannine Carter - a consultant and trainer in the fields of diversity & inclusion, cultural change, strategic planning, and organizational development/excellence for over 15 years.
