  - a. CBA Executive Director Update– Amy Larson will be the new Executive Director
  - b. RESC Nominations – Due March 15, 2020.
  - c. Offsite Meeting– May in Fort Collins. Following up on dates for the offsite meeting. Information to follow.
  - d. Case Law Update: Fairways at Buffalo Run and Evans v. Evans

Nothing new on Fairways at Buffalo Run – waiting for Colorado Supreme Court to rule on the petition for certiorari.

Evans v. Evans – Ruth Moore has filed a Petition for Certiorari for the Petitioner. She requests an amicus in favor of the petition. There is a 7-day deadline from today to file in support of the petition for cert.

Underlying opinion addresses a family law procedure issue and a real estate issue. Only issue raised in the petition is on real estate issue:
    - Interpretation of recording statute; and the spurious lien statute. When the statute says you can file a “certified copy,” that is what you must file. The Petitioner takes the position that you cannot file your own interpretation of the Court’s order. Doing so injects uncertainty and “fuzziness” into the real estate records.
    - Spurious lien statute. The Petition discusses the difference between a spurious document and a spurious lien. A lien should be set aside. The Court of Appeals did not get to the question of whether the lien was invalid. The Petitioner could not refinance the property due to the recording. If a lien is invalid, it can it be set aside under the spurious lien statute, or do you have to do a quiet title? This statute was supposed to be an efficient way to knock off spurious liens from title. Now the ruling in Evans undermines the statutory purpose and procedure for getting rid of invalid liens.

Ms. Moore handed out the Petition filed today.

The Council asked questions and Ms. Leff advised Ms. Moore that the RESC is not taking action until (and if) the Petition is granted.

ACTION ITEMS

- a. Marketing Items Budget ..... Suzanne Leff

Jess Ham investigated “swag” for future outreach tables at different events. Name tags for Council Members are $108 for 15 name tags; and 1-2 weeks for delivery of name tags.

Motion to order name tags. Second. Banner / tabletop banner / retractable banner. Amend the motion to include ordering a banner for future tables. Motion as amended passed.

Ms. Leff listed an assortment of “swag” items. Mr. Jung pointed out that RESC needs to consider why we are choosing the swag – sustainable. Is the item useful? Does it meet a purpose that ties to the RESC? Ms. Leff delegated to the Membership Committee a review of these issues. Depending on their recommendations, the RESC can build money into the budget for 2020/2021. Perhaps choose a nice “swag” give and have drawings at the Symposium.

- b. Legislative Items ..... Suzanne Leff, Chris Payne

- i. HB 20-1200 – HOA Sunset Bill

Mr. Payne reported on sunset bill that includes expansion of information office and expanded arbitration and enforcement rights. 2013 expand scope of office for complaints referred to arbitrators. At that time increase fee for referral to 3rd party arbitrators. 2013 bill did not pass, largely because of fiscal notes.

Significant Expansion of Information Office: HOA information office expansion – larger database for associations – i.e. Board members, governing documents, all available online. DORA – accept, investigate consumer complaints. Subpoena power, offer some arbitration/mediation services. Violations and enforcement, advocate for DORA positions through ALJ. NO administrative exhaustion. Scope of enforcement significantly increased. Includes HOA, board member, agents or “any other person alleged to commit violation of CCIOA” (i.e. custodians of records and possibly attorneys). Giving DORA quasi-judicial authority, which could be unconstitutional.

Associations object but may not be a fiscal note because funded through:

- (1) Removal of cap on association fees (under rules to be promulgated) and penalties for failing to renew up to $5,000 and
- (2) penalties against all respondents up to $5,000/day. These would be lienable against common elements. Cannot pursue indemnities to pass through to owners as common expense.

RESC main objections:

- (1) Lien against common elements
- (2) High likelihood multiple actions at same time, so multiple interpretations (arbitration, DORA, ALJ or judicial process) – Can DORA make legally binding decisions? If not, any association with adverse decisions from DORA would be appealed.
- (3) Expansive number of respondents and liability facing board members, employees, attorneys.

LPC Memo, CAI and other opponents looking to amend rather than flat out oppose. In light of consumer protection and ability of DORA to enforce it would be difficult to oppose concept of HOA Information Office.

If amend: CAI following other states – only 5 other states. Have to exhaust governing documents first. Then, only a referral agency, but DORA not arbitrator/mediator. One state – Delaware will make more of a decision because run through AG’s office. Florida has a captive set of arbitrators through separate office.

Our proposed amendment:

- (1) Get rid of lien rights
- (2) Get rid of multiple respondents
- (3) First exhaust arbitration required under association documents, then referral only.

Ms. Arnold make motion to amend bill and give task force authority to recommend amendments it sees fit. Ms. Brimah second. Discussion, see below. One opposed. All rest approved amendment.

Violations of CCIOA, regulations, division orders or program. Another concern: self-funded through violations and violations too broad.

All this affects property values, ability to sell, ability to finance.

Important to remember consumer protections and opposing bill would be opposing sunset bill and

Mr. White relayed that sponsor of bill has invited comment from interested parties. We can begin present concerns with caveat that we do not have official position until after LPC approval of RESC recommendation. Also, may have some cross section interest in this bill (ADR and Consumer Committee).
