A. The next Cannabis Law Committee (“CLC” or “Committee”) meeting will be held at the same place, on May 4, 2017, at noon.

B. The first topic of discussion was a TCL article from the CLC. Mr. Detsky is working on an article, will send a draft to Graham. Mr. Emmi is also working on an article, he is shooting for a finish date in May.

C. Mr. Singh gave an update of upcoming CLE's. He is working on getting employees of the MED to speak at a CLE event to take place in June or July.

D. There was a discussion regarding a MIP license question posed by Ms. Aron.

E. The listserv for the CLC is up and running, thanks to Dave Rodman for answering the first question. In order to answer a question posed by a listserv participant, you must first answer the joining email.

F. There was a discussion regarding the sealing of cannabis related charges. Mr. Wilson provided a brief summary of the requirements.

G. The Committee discussed a frustration that some members have with the MED's interpretation of the laws and regulations and what to do about that frustration. There were some discussions regarding getting involved in the rule making process.

H. Mr. Wilson gave a brief summary of current federal legislation and the Denver social consumption license process.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:53pm.
