Describe yourself in five words.

Industrious. Analytical. Sincere. Determined.
Optimistic.

Why did you become a lawyer?

My father is a lawyer, and growing up it was inspiring to see how much he enjoyed and grew from this profession. I knew law school would provide an excellent education and that as a lawyer I could have a hands-on career that would allow me to use my education to make a positive, tangible impact on people's lives.

What do you like the most about your practice area?

Working with clients who are not necessarily coming to us because something has gone wrong, but because they want to organize their lives and avoid conflict down the road.

If you weren't a lawyer, you'd be?

An interior designer or a landscape architect.

Outside of the law, what are your hobbies?

Running, camping, road-tripping, and spending time with my husband and fur babies.

Favorite place you've traveled to:

Costa Rica (the monkeys!).

What is your favorite place to escape to in Colorado?

Ouray and Steamboat.

What is your favorite month, and why?

June. All of summer's opportunities lie ahead, the days are long, and everything is green and beautiful.

What do you consider your greatest achievement?

Running my first marathon.
