WELBORN

SULLIVAN MECK & TOOLEY, P.C.

Rebecca W. Watson
Selected President of Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation

Welborn Sullivan Meck & Tooley, P.C. is pleased to announce that Rebecca W. Watson has been selected President of the Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation ("RMMLF"), an educational non-profit with 4,000 lawyer and landman members. Ms. Watson is the fourth woman to serve as President in the Foundation's 65 years and is focused on implementation of the Foundation's first strategic plan. "I am particularly honored to have been chosen to help lead the Foundation at this important time – as we position the Foundation for continued relevance to new generations of lawyers and landmen."

Ms. Watson's election as the 2019-20 President was announced during the 65th Annual Institute in Monterey, CA. Before joining Welborn, Ms. Watson served as the Assistant Secretary for Land and Minerals Management at the U.S. Department of the Interior during President George W. Bush's first term.

Ms. Watson has been a member and contributor to RMMLF for over 36 years. "The Foundation has been a significant part of my legal career, I've relied on its scholarship to become a better lawyer, found friends, mentors and a professional network and gained personal satisfaction as a contributor to the Foundation's scholarship." In 2014, she served as Program Chair at the 60th Annual Institute of RMMLF and in 1996, Rebecca started Portia's Lunch, a networking event for the women lawyers and landmen of the Foundation.

With offices in Denver, Colorado and Casper, Wyoming, Welborn Sullivan Meck & Tooley, P.C. serves clients throughout the world. For more information: www.wsmtlaw.com

Congratulating Randy Anglen

Attorney & Counselor at Law | Family Law

The Cossitt Law Firm is pleased to announce the addition of Randy Anglen to our team, where he will be practicing in the area of family law and appeals.

With nearly 30 years of law experience, both as a Municipal Judge and a practicing attorney, Randy has co-authored the Missouri Municipal Judge's Handbook on Marriage, and lectured at continuing education courses for attorneys and judges. He served as adjunct faculty at the College of the Ozarks, and volunteers for the Salvation Army, Colorado Legal Aid, and various homeless shelters.

When Randy is not practicing law, he volunteers his time in the community, enjoys the diverse craft brewery scene in Northern Colorado and the activities the Rocky Mountains offer.

CBA ETHICS HOTLINE

A Service for Attorneys

The CBA Ethics Hotline is a free resource for attorneys who need immediate assistance with an ethical dilemma or question. Inquiries are handled by individual members of the CBA Ethics Committee. Attorneys can expect to briefly discuss an ethical issue with a hotline volunteer and are asked to do their own research before calling the hotline.

To contact a hotline volunteer, please call the CBA offices at 303-860-1115.
