

Dear CBA Member:

I'm pleased to announce that the CBA has endorsed a new partnership to serve the malpractice insurance needs of its members. Lockton Affinity, acting as the administrator for CNA, demonstrated to us that their combination of broad coverage terms, competitive pricing, and commitment to providing stellar customer service offers CBA members the optimal solution for this very important insurance coverage.

CNA and Lockton Affinity emerged as the right choice after a thorough vetting process. A subcommittee of the Lawyers Professional Liability Committee, chaired by CBA member Chris Little, was convened last summer to pursue a formal RFP for a new endorsed provider. While several qualified firms responded, the CNA/Lockton Affinity combination offered the best terms, including:

- a policy form representing an industry-leading insurance solution for CBA members;
- significantly lower premiums than those previously offered;
- a continued premium credit for CBA members;
- a dedicated local Lockton Affinity agent, Casey MacDonald, to exclusively serve the customer service needs of Colorado lawyers;
- support of and participation in CBA initiatives for risk management programs;
- a commitment to assist in CLE efforts; and
- the largest database of lawyer information—both underwriting and claims—in the country.

With our new partners, and our members' support, we look forward to growing a professional liability insurance program that not only addresses the current needs of Colorado lawyers, but also anticipates and responds to their future needs. Please reach out to Lockton Affinity to request a no obligation quote at <https://www.locktonsurvey.com/f/170710/cca4>, or by contacting Casey MacDonald, your Denver-based account executive, at (913) 652-5713.

We hope you'll find the application process easy and the service second to none, and we are confident you'll be pleased with the new premiums!

Sincerely,

Patrick Flaherty
