

Engaging Our Members in New Ways

BY JOHN VAUGHT

The Colorado Bar Association is pleased to announce the implementation of our newest membership benefit: CBA Community. Community is provided through Higher Logic, an industry leader in cloud-based community platforms for associations and nonprofits. We will be providing a suite of products designed to facilitate community creation and engagement. These software solutions will allow members to network with each other and communicate with bar leadership, at any time, using a range of personal devices.

Some of the exciting features of Community include discussion groups, resource libraries, file sharing, directories, calendars, event management tools, glossaries, and educational blogs/wikis. As our members engage with the Community platform, it will evolve as a fully searchable, constantly expanding interactive resource. A personal profile, customizable interface, daily digests, and curated content will allow members to tailor the experience to their own preferences and practice needs. The ultimate goal is to create an enriched online learning environment with strong community engagement. The CBA and Colorado Bar Association CLE are excited to implement these new tools to provide maximum value for your membership.
