

In Memoriam

Malcolm "Sandy" MacDougall, a devoted and valued member of the CBA's Water Law Section, passed away on April 18, 2018.

Sandy was born in Denver on January 26, 1938 to Malcolm and Helen MacDougall. He graduated from East High School in Denver and attended Colorado A&M in Fort Collins, where he met his future wife, Phyllis Pomrenke. The couple was married in 1959 and had two sons, Barry and Chris.

Sandy graduated from CU Law School in 1962 and became a clerk for The Honorable Judge Jean S. Breitenstein of the Tenth Circuit

Court of Appeals. He served on the Denver Water Board before joining the firm at Saunders, Snyder & Ross. He later served as general counsel for the Golden Circle Corporation and as a partner with Geddes & Sparks. He eventually opened his own private practice, partnering with Juliann Woldridge and Hank Worley.

Sandy was a co-founder of the Southglenn Civic Association, and in that capacity he helped found Arapahoe Jr. College. He also served as president of the Board of Directors of the Western Museum of Mining & Industry and was a longtime board member of Park State Bank and Trust in Woodland Park.

He is survived by his wife Phyllis, son Barry MacDougall, daughter-in-law Maria MacDougall, former daughter-in-law Cindy Moran, grandchildren Heather, Jenny, Heidi, Maria, and Edgar, and great-grandchildren

Chloe, Hartley, Logan, Foster, Rylan, and Tanner.

Charitable contributions may be made in Sandy's name to: The Western Museum of Mining and Industry, 225 North Gate Blvd., Colorado Springs, CO 80921.
