

Jessica M. Mauser

Jessica Mauser is being featured as a CBA young lawyer. She is a member of the Colorado Trial Lawyers Association and its Women Trial Lawyers Network, and the American Association for Justice and its Women Trial Lawyers Caucus and New Lawyers Division.

PROFILE

Hometown:

Westminster, Colorado

Law School:

Appalachian School of Law

Lives in:

Westminster, Colorado

Works at:

Bowman &
Chamberlain, LLC

Practice Area(s):

Personal Injury

CBA Member Since:

2015

Describe yourself in five words.

Compassionate. Dedicated. Inquisitive. Tenacious. Creative.

Why did you become a lawyer?

Simply put, I wanted to make a difference in the world. At 12 years old, I knew I wanted to be a lawyer. I had seen the commercials and watched the TV dramas, and my parents would be the first to tell you that I had a knack for persuasion. But it was not until I spent a day shadowing a lawyer that I truly understood how I could make a difference. On that day, I watched an attorney's poise as she listened to her client tell her story. I knew then that if I could earn the trust of someone in need and help them to get back on their feet, that would be a mark worth leaving.

What's the best advice you've ever been given?

You'll never know unless you try.

What is one of the most positive experiences you've had as a lawyer?

Completing my first deposition in a first-party bad faith case.

What do you like the most about your practice area?

There is a new challenge each day.

What do you wish you had learned in law school?

You will fail more times than you will succeed, and that is 100% okay; your failures will teach you far more than your successes.

What is your favorite place to escape to in Colorado?

Anywhere I can camp and be surrounded by water.

If you weren't a lawyer, you'd be:

A baker. 🍪

Do you know a CBA member who should be featured in Under Oath? Email nominations to Sue Bertram at sbertram@cobar.org.