2017 Senior Law Day Sponsors

A very special thank you to the following businesses, nonprofits, governmental agencies, foundations, and individuals, who believe in our mission to educate aging adults, their families and caregivers about the laws and issues that affect their daily lives. The Sponsors' generous financial and in-kind support make it possible for us to provide you with this Handbook, and to hold the many Senior Law Day events throughout Colorado. Please be sure to visit these great organizations and businesses to see how they can help you!

Probate Litigation

Candace Werth

Candace Werth worked to protect seniors in the Jefferson County District Attorney's Elder Abuse Unit from 2012-2016. After spending 24 years as a prosecuting attorney in Jefferson, Adams and Broomfield Counties, she opened WERTH LAW in 2016 to help seniors and their families.

Candace is a Colorado near - native. She received her Bachelors Degree from Cornell College and graduated with distinction from the University of Iowa College of Law. In 2015 Candace was recognized as one of 125 people that have made a difference in the history of the University of Iowa College of Law. She is a member of the Brighton Chamber of Commerce.

Her office is easy to find and just off I-25 on 120th Avenue. Handicap accessible and plenty of free parking.
